"SANNING" PIRACY RECALLED.

Government Grants to Wounded Officers.

$1,000 EACH FOR CAPTAIN & CHIEF OFFICER.

Both badly wounded during the piratical attack on the s.s. Sanning in October last, Captain MacKechnie and Chief Officer Robb have been made grantees of $1,000 each by the Hongkong Government. Information to this effect has been made to the China Coast Officers' Guild in the following official letter:—

Colonial Secretary's Office, Hongkong,
13th June, 1924.

Sir,—I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 17th May, 1924, and to state that His Excellency the Governor-in-Council has decided that a gratuity of $1,000 each should be made from Government funds to Captain MacKechnie and Chief Officer Robb in respect of wounds incurred on the occasion of the piracy of the s.s. "Sanning" on the night of the 23rd October, 1923.

The Harbour Master is being asked to communicate with these two officers with regard to the matter.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Sgd.) CLAUD SEVERN,
Colonial Secretary
The Assistant Secretary,
China Coast Officers' Guild.

THE PIRACY RECALLED.

The piracy referred to took place between Castle Peak and Baa Bay, in the waters of the Colony, whilst the Sanning (owned by the Suh Hing Co.) was bound from Hongkong to Kowloon. Two hours after leaving here, about sixty pirates travelling as passengers suddenly rose and in a few minutes gained control of the ship. The six Indian guards were overpowered and disarmed, one being shot in the face. Captain MacKechnie was shot in the neck and shoulder and Mr. Robb, the Chief Officer, in the groin and side of the face, both being later treated at the Government Civil Hospital.

All through the night of October 23rd the pirates were busy ransacking the ship and on the following morning they forced the Chinese crew to row them ashore in ship's boats, enabling them to get away with their booty. In addition to much cargo and personal belongings of passengers, the pirates took away some $2,000 from the commodore's safe as well as all the ship's armory. After the pirates had departed, the vessel was brought back to Hongkong.

GRANTS APPRECIATED.

In conveying us the information of the Government's grants to the wounded officers, Mr. T. E. Laurensen, Assistant Secretary of the China Coast Officers' Guild, stated that the Guild was very grateful for this act on the part of the Government and felt it only right that the facts should be made public. The making of these grants showed that the Government was prepared to apply such grants retrospectively, although there was really no obligation on its part to do so. "So far as these cases are concerned," said Mr. Laurensen, "we represented them to the Government, and we are glad that the thing has come through. As I say, we are most grateful to the Government for what it has done for these two officers."

APPEAL COURT.

A TENANCY DISPUTE.

Question of Landlords' Rights.

An appeal was heard in the Court of Appellate Jurisdiction this morning, before the Acting Chief Justice (Mr. Justice Gompertz) and the acting Puisne Judge (Mr. A. Dyer Hall) against a judgment of Mr. Justice Gompertz made in May last, in an action between landlord and tenant.

The landlords (Yeung Chik-fook and Ho Shung-ki) of a row of houses in First Street sought possession of 11 flats, the tenants of which had refused to deliver up possession. The various tenants went into occupation at different dates, but the notice to quit, given to all, expired on the same day. Defendants, who were represented by Mr. C. A. S. Russ, claimed that this was wrong and that separate notices should have been given to each expiring at one of the periods of their individual tenancies. Mr. Macnamara represented the landlords and his claim that the notice to each was valid was, in the original action, upheld by Mr. Justice Gompertz, who made an order for possession.

Mr. C. G. Alabaster, K.C., was now for the appellants and Mr. Eldon Potter, K.C., for the respondents. The grounds of appeal were three:—(1) that the Judge was wrong in holding that the notice to quit did not give exact particulars of the reconstruction intended; and (2) that the ordinance of 1924, which refers to the date of a judgment or order applied to expired notice where the writ had not been issued until after the date of the Ordinance.

Mr. Alabaster, opening the case for the appellant, said that the notice to quit was ineffectual because it did not expire at the end of the current month. A contractual tenancy could only be determined in this manner, said counsel, who proceeded to quote many cases in support of his contention.

Mr. Alabaster, continuing, said that the Ordinance required the notice to quit to state the exact nature of the reconstruction. The notice given in the case before them did not in any way give the nature of the reconstruction; it merely said that they were going to reconstruct.

Mr. Potter objected to this point being raised. "You are asking the Court to decide a point which was not raised in the Court below," said counsel.

Mr. Alabaster went on to deal with the question of the retrospective character of the 1924 Ordinance. The original Ordinance was retrospective, he said, the amending Ordinances were retrospective and the 1924 amendment should be taken as retrospective. The legislation was framed against the landlord in favour of the tenants, and every little point that had added to it since 1920 had been made with a view to preventing the landlords from hedging.

The appeal is proceeding.

WORLD FLIERS.

AMERICANS OFF TO-DAY.

We are courteously informed by the American Consul General (Mr. W. Holt Gale) that he is in receipt of a telegram dated yesterday stating that the three American planes were still at Tourane, but that the probable time of departure for Saigon would be 5 o'clock this (Monday) morning.

MACLAREN'S PLANE.

The Consul further informs us that he has received another telegram saying that the U.S. destroyer Proctor landed the new plane for Flight Leader Maclaren, the British visitor, at Akayab on the 13th instant.

who won the Glasgow Herald thousand guineas tournament, beating Abe Mitchell in the final.

CANTON ARSENAL PLANT.

THE LATEST SETTLEMENT PROPOSALS.

Efforts are being made in Canton to settle the dispute regarding the Rabbitt arsenal plant. Various papers state that dinner party was recently given by the acting Civil Governor to a number of leading officials and representatives of the Commercial Guilds, Merchants' Volunteer Corps and benevolent societies, and that during the evening the acting Civil Governor raised the question of settling the dispute. Many proposals, it is said, were put forward, but the gathering favoured the issuing of bonds to the amount outstanding, these to be available for purchase of arms and ammunition by the Volunteer Corps and also for the payment of taxes, but not to be put into currency. It was also suggested that the Rabbitt Corporation be asked to accept $150,000 on account, the balance to be paid within eight months and to be guaranteed by the Commercial Guilds and Benevolent Societies.

A later report says that as Lio Chung-hoi, a leader of the Labour Party, has been appointed Civil Governor, some of the Commercial Guilds hesitate to take up any of the bonds, as a consequence of which there will be a general meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on the 17th instant to discuss the proposals.

S.S. SEISTAN REFLOATED.

BROUGHT INTO PORT YESTERDAY.

The steamship Seistan, which was successfully refloated early yesterday morning and brought into port, and is now in drydock at Kowloon.

As we reported on Saturday, a further attempt was to be made to pull the ship off the rocks at Hongkong Chau, where she had run aground, on Saturday evening, the ship's winches, pulling on her anchors, to help the tug Henry Koswick; and failing success another try would be made on Sunday morning, when the tide would be higher. The attempt yesterday morning, proved successful, the vessel coming off about five o'clock assisted by the tide and a heavy swell. She came into port about 8 a.m., and was berthed by two o'clock in the afternoon, after the livestock had been removed and landed.

Prior to her going on the blocks, divers ascertained that the Seistan is only slightly damaged, having a small breach in the hull on the port side about twelve feet from the stem.

NEW X-RAY PLANT.

ANONYMOUS GIFT TO LOCAL HOSPITALS.

At the annual meeting of the Alice Memorial and Affiliated Hospitals last week it was announced that there was great need for a new X-Ray plant for the diagnosis and treatment of surgical cases. It was explained that the old apparatus had become useless and that a sum of $5,000 would meet the cost of a new plant.

We understand that, in consequence of the publicity given to this fact, a cheque to cover the cost of the new plant has now been received by the Hon. Mr. P. H. Holyoak (Chairman of the Hospitals), the donor wishing to remain anonymous.

BEGGARS' BATTLE.

WOODEN LEG V. CRUTCH.

The peace of the Central Police Station was rudely disturbed yesterday when some sixty mendicants, who had been detained in the cells pending their deportation to Canton, indulged in a free fight.

One man who had a wooden leg, used it to good effect in a hefty kick on another beggar. The latter retaliated with his crutch to such good purpose that his adversary was laid out.

Constables when they arrived found one man hopping on one leg, another stretched unconscious on the ground, whilst a third, a blind man, was hitting out right and left and was only pacified after some difficulty. The injured man was removed in a stretcher to the hospital, after peace had been restored.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

ON THE STANLEY ROAD.

A highway robbery occurred on the Stanley Road near Chaiwan Gap yesterday morning when two men were waylaid and held up at the point of a revolver.

One of them, a coolie employed at the Taitam Tuk Pumping Station, was searched and robbed of $25, but, singularly enough, the other was not molested. After making this haul the two robbers decamped, in the direction of the Taikeo summer quarters on Mount Parker.

MOULDERS PAY.

NO REPLY TO LOCAL DEMAND.

On enquiries at the Chinese Engineers' Institution this morning it was learned that the reply from Chinese firms and shops to the moulders' application for a general increase of 60 per cent, throughout on their wages is expected to-day. Nothing has been learned, however, in regard to the application to foreign dockyards and engineering establishments.

NEW FRENCH CABINET.

FAVOURABLE PRESS COMMENT.

ATTITUDE TOWARDS GERMANY.

(Reuter's Service.)

Paris, June 15.

Press comment on the new Cabinet is favourable, especially with regard to the choice of Gen. Nollat as War Minister, which it is declared shows M. Herriot is carefully considering the question of France's security.

It is stated the Left parties have resolved to seek a basis of understanding with the democratic elements of Reich without any concession which might injure the rights of France.

M. Herriot in an interview with the Matin said he would adopt a conciliatory policy towards Germany and make every effort to help the young democracy, but would show pitiless severity with regard to German reaction or nationalism.

WRECKED JAPANESE STEAMER.

FIVE MORE SURVIVORS.

It is reported by the Yamashta Kisen Kogyo Kaisha, of Hongkong, that five more survivors of the Yohiko Maru have been found.

According to the information given by these men, the position of the foundered vessel is in mid-stream near the northern entrance of Hainan Straits, about 15 miles E.N.E. of Hainan Head.

As the wreck is probably a danger to navigation, a notification to mariners is being issued.

"BRASS."

WORLD THEATRE ATTRACTION.

What marriage vows mean to a mettlesome young girl with the desire to drink deep of the wine of life is the subject matter of the popular novel, "Brass," coming to the World Theatre, beginning on Wednesday.

"Brass" is a Warner Brothers classic of the screen adapted from the book written by Charles G. Norris. It deals with marriage and divorce, and in its book form it is attaining wide renown through its realistic treatment of the marriage question.

Monte Blue, the tall, handsome screen player with a wealth of personality, plays the feature role in this picture where the role of trouble maker is reversed. Here, the woman is the errant one, tiring of home and domestic ties, while the man is the faithful home-staying person in need of shelter and protection after the day's hard tussle in business.

Young Philip and Marjorie Baldwin find themselves unhappy though but newly married. With different temperaments home means different things to them, and the upshot is a divorce and a plunge into new love adventures after the split-up. Entanglement closely follows entanglement, as Mrs. G. the nurse, finds herself cherishing a love for Philip, and as Philip finds himself the object of a designing young husband-seeker.

The supporting cast consists of Marie Prevost, Harry Myers, Vera Lewis, Irene Rich, Frank Keenan, Miss DuPont, Margaret Seddon, Helen Ferguson, Edward Seddon, Harvey Clark Cyril, Chadwick, Pat O'Malley, Gertrude Bennett and Ethel Gray Terry.

CORRESPONDENCE.

(To the Editor of the "Hongkong Telegraph.")

The Wisdom of Thrift.

Sir,—May I make an appeal to our youths, through the columns of the press, on the subject of thrift? There is every indication that at present they are spending their money with little thought for the future. Money comes with difficulties unless inherited. And, yet when we are careless about it, it disappears with wonderful rapidity.

There are two reasons why young people, part with their money so readily. They believe in their earning power, and they think it is good policy to spend as one goes along. They do not look ahead to the day when they will require more money than they will be able to earn. They forget that new demands for money may arise, and these demands cannot be met unless they have been saving money regularly and systematically. That is how some people fall into debt.

Then there is a third aspect. A man's money should be used for constructive purposes. He should do good with it and in this way let others enjoy the fruit of his labours.

If there is any one thing in life that makes man very happy, it is the privilege of using one's money in ways that will give joys to others. If frequently happens that a small sum of money given to a needy person enables him to have a different outlook on life, and where he saw only darkness and hopelessness before, the mind would suddenly be filled with cheerfulness and light.

Thanking you for the hospitality of your space and hoping that some of your numerous young readers will take the question of saving money into their careful consideration.

Yours etc.,

S. K. WONG.

CHARGE OF THEFT FROM DRAWER.

An Indian watchman, employed at the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, was charged before Mr. R. E. Lindell, at the Police Court this morning, with the theft of keys and a gold watch belonging to one of the staff.

It was alleged that defendant was detected in the act of unlocking a drawer.

As the accused said he desired to be represented by a solicitor, the hearing was adjourned until to-morrow morning.

SOVIET AND TURKEY.

No Designs On Constantinople.

Moscow, June 15.
Trotzky in a speech declared that the reports of his alleged speech at Podolsk, favouring the Russian invasion of Bessarabia as a step towards the seizure of Constantinople and the Dardanelles Straits was absolutely untrue. On the contrary, he declared the conquest of the Straits was radically opposed to the policy of the Soviet, who had helped Turkey to regain possession of Constantinople and proclaim the autonomy of the Nationalists. —Reuter.

THE FU RIVER OUTRAGE.

MISSIONARIES BLAMED.

Canton's Official Excuses.
Peking, June 11.—A Consular telegram from Canton reports that the Rev. Rex Ray, the American missionary, escaped from the bandits on June 11th. The Rev. R. A. Jaffray, the Britisher, remains in captivity. The news reached Canton from the U. S. S. Panpanga at Wuchow. (Reuter.)
[The missionary still held in captivity is the Rev. E. H. Carno, an Australian, and not the Rev. R. A. Jaffray, who was released some time ago. —Ed., S. C. M. Post.]

Statement by Department of Foreign Affairs, Canton.
The following is to hand from the Press Bureau at Canton:

"With reference to the recent piracy at Tai Kwong, Kwangsi, of the American Mission motor boat Ronoke and the capture by bandits of the party of missionaries who were on board on a relief expedition to succour a number of missionaries besieged at Kweilin, the Department of Foreign Affairs, Canton, having now received full particulars from the Military authorities in Kwangsi, has issued the following statement summarising the facts relating to the unfortunate venture.

"Upon learning unofficially last month of the intention of some missionaries at Wuchow to proceed on a relief expedition to the assistance of the missionaries stationed at Kweilin, the Department of Foreign Affairs strongly discouraged the venture. Department officials pointed out in the first place that if the missionaries at Kweilin desired to or could get out, they would have done so of their own accord, whereas if they would not or could not, the proposed relief party, consisting only of four missionaries from Wuchow, was not likely to serve any useful purpose, since it was in no sense a sufficiently large and properly equipped expedition. Furthermore, it was pointed out that the region all along the Fu river between Wuchow and Kweilin was infested by innumerable bandits, and was also the war zone of contending military factions without being under the clear and exclusive jurisdiction or control of any faction. Consequently, without likelihood of rendering any service to their beleaguered brethren at Kweilin, the Wuchow missionaries would merely be exposing themselves to unnecessary danger in such circumstances.

Even after the Wuchow missionaries, disregarding the advice of the Department, had embarked on their venture, the voyage would scarcely have turned out so sadly as it has done, if the advice of the military escort, which had been provided for the Ronoke, had been heeded. The missionaries would not wait for the completion of the arrangements which were being made for their safety and started before the appointed hour without the full escort. It appears that even when the Ronoke party was first held up by the bandits at Tai Kwong, the boat could have turned back without mishap, but the missionaries insisted on parleying with the bandits and decided to land and go off in person to negotiate with the bandit chief. They therefore deliberately and with open eyes walked into the bandit lair and, as was to be expected, were made prisoners.

While the fullest sympathy and regret will be felt at the unfortunate outcome of the Ronoke venture, it ought to be stated that had the missionaries acted with less precipitancy and complied with the advice repeatedly tendered, they would at least have avoided complicating the situation in Kwangsi by their courageous but ill-conceived attempt to negotiate with the bandits.

Two of the captured missionaries, Messrs Jaffray and Miller, have been released by the bandits, and are now back at Wuchow.

Meanwhile, the Military authorities under the instructions of this Government are not relaxing their efforts to secure the release of the remaining two missionaries."

CHINESE IN CANADA RESENT REGULATION.

Victoria, British Columbia, June 15.—The Chinese in Canada have designated Dominion Day, July 1st, as Humiliation Day, to mark their resentment of Dominion regulations requiring all residents of Chinese origin to report to immigration officials for registration before the end of June. Thirty eight thousand, according to the last census, will be affected by the order, which was passed last year. The Chinese regard it as an unwarranted affront upon the dignity of their race. While the Canadian flag on July 1st will fly at the masthead, the Chinese flag at Vancouver and elsewhere will be hauled down. —Reuter.

Dunann was irresistible, an epitome of confidence, and astoundingly accurate. He won three of the first five holes and turned five up, which he retained to the end of the first round. THE SEDAN CHAIR.

The widening of public thoroughfares in Canton, consequent on the coming of the motor-car, which is yearly growing in popularity, has, we read, resulted in sedan-chair bearers finding it increasingly difficult to make a living. Not so many years ago, when Canton was a maze of dirty, narrow streets, the sedan-chair was the usual medium for getting about, for the very simple reason that wheeled traffic was out of the question throughout the greater part of the city. According to reports just issued, the number of men employed in this work has, within the past few years, dropped from eight thousand to a quarter of that total, and even those who are left find it no easy matter to make a living at the job, owing to lessened demand for their services and the rising cost of necessities. A statement which recently appeared in a Canton paper says these men, in olden times, used to earn extremely good money at the work, living on a standard even above that of the middle classes. Times have changed, however, and with the coming of more modern means of transportation Canton is losing one of the picturesque aspects of workaday life. The day will doubtless come when the sedan-chair will have completely disappeared from the streets, as it did in England back in the 18th Century.

Here in Hongkong there are still many hundreds of chair-bearers serving public needs, but the number is smaller than it was and these men are gradually being driven off the main thoroughfares up to the higher levels, where there is greater need of the vehicles. Owing to the hilly configuration of Hongkong, it will probably be very many years before sedan chairs are a thing of the past here, but by degrees the risk-sha will undoubtedly go, as new means of transportation are constantly being introduced on the lower levels. The march of progress cannot be stayed, and these changes, involving a very serious problem for those affected, seem inevitable. We may, from the standpoint of the purely picturesque, regret the development.

But, after all, we live in a workaday world, in which time and convenience are factors of much weight.

Typhoon Measures.

The provision of new typhoon moorings, of a very powerful type, full particulars of which were given by us in our last issue, marks another step forward in making the harbour of Hongkong as nearly safe as possible despite the climatic disadvantage from which we suffer every summer. The old typhoon moorings have stood the test of severe storms, and it was remarked by Commander Beckwith last year that though ships might drag their anchors, and their cables part, the buoys were not shifted.
However, the more secure vessels can be in this port during typhoon weather the better, and nobody can deny that these new moorings are capable of holding fast in the most terrific gale imaginable.
We are at the beginning of the season of storms and heavy seas, so reference to ships' special anchoring facilities suggests the other precautions which the typhoon of August last year year, when there was a distressing loss of life in the harbour, brought into discussion. The principal controversy centered on means of life-saving in the midst of typhoon conditions, and the respective merits of rocket apparatus and powerful tugboats have been fully aired. So far as we know, there are still a number of practical shipping men who think the use of rocket-carried lifelines quite feasible, despite the official pronouncements to the contrary. We agree with those who consider life-saving tugs a superior proposition, but the rockets would be better than nothing at all. For the present the only definite action on the part of the authorities is the provision of stronger moorings, but these cannot do away with all possibility of future loss of life in the harbour. The Loong-sang affair was unexpected, and it is the unexpected that often happens.

China's Round Table.

When Sir Robert Ho Tung was about to leave for Wembley he appointed a strong and representative committee to carry on the work of unification of China which he had set out to accomplish by means of his round table scheme. Really, Sir Robert had already done all that could be arranged prior to the holding of the actual conference of opposing leaders, and we take it that the committee was formed to watch that there was no backsliding during his absence. The important men in the present warring of the factions have either promised to attend a round table meeting or else have provisionally endorsed the idea, so it merely requires Sir Robert Ho Tung's reappearance on the scene to test whether these Presidents, technicians, and Generals have been sincere in their expressions of sympathy with the effort to reunite the country and bring peace and prosperity to the whole of China. That the originator of the scheme has not lost faith in the ultimate success of these efforts of his, is apparent from the tone of his references at the Overseas League luncheon, when he declared that he intended to persevere in the good work. Recent events do not make one inclined to be optimistic of success, but perhaps there is at last a dawning national consciousness that the selfish faction leaders should no longer be given blind obedience. It is in such movements as the Merchants Volunteers of Canton that we look for eventual reform, for nothing should urge the despots to meet at a round table discussion more readily than a realisation that the people were beginning to take matters into their own hands.

Reports from Canton state that the Military Headquarters there have again requested "outside" troops to move from the city, but that the order is not being complied with. In fact, some of the Yunnanese commanders are bringing back their forces from the front and garrisoning them in the city.

A Chinese poultry dealer was fined $10, or 14 days, by Mr. E.
W. Hamilton at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning, for overcrowding ducks in a crate. It was stated that defendant had 92 ducks in a crate and ten of them were dead, while three others had to be killed when taken to the station. Defendant said that the ducks had come from Wuchow in the same condition.

Six women who were charged this morning with cutting trees in Wongneichong Gap were let off with a caution.
The C.S.P. later appeared in Court and said that in connection with this case he was at Wongneichong Gap yesterday when he saw a woman carrying a piece of wood which appeared to have been cut off a live tree.
The place was simply being denuded of trees.

We regret to record the death, at the St. Paul's Hospital on Saturday, at the age of 48 years, of Mr. Paul Banker, brother of the late Mr. George Banker. The deceased was for a time associated with his brother in West River shipping, having resided in the Colony for 25 years, but latterly had started business on his own account. He leaves a widow and eight children, with whom the utmost sympathy is felt. The funeral took place yesterday at Happy Valley.

TWO-MINUTE TALKS A Daily Tonic
By ROBERT POWER

LIMELIGHT LIVES.

It sometimes happens that a life is suddenly put into the limelight of publicity. In that white glare minute events and actions are shown up with startling clearness. Perhaps a tragedy drags certain people into public view. Their secrets, sins, their very souls, are exposed to pitiless scrutiny. What wonder if they seem deformed and dreadful.
There is little pity in this concentrated stare of the multitude.
Morbid gloating leaves little room for just judgment. It is so easy to give a verdict in the case of "the other fellow." Yet it is a sobering thought. What if I had been exposed to a sudden temptation? How should I have acted under certain circumstances?
Those who are in the limelight are very helpless. We can easily imagine how their tortured spirits long to creep into obscurity and to escape from the stinging eyes of their unofficial judges.
Perhaps they have lost their friends as well as their reputations. They are alone, terribly alone, and yet they cannot escape from the limelight which lights up all their past actions and seems to glow over the present.
To gloat is to enjoy the sufferings of those who are under suspicion. It is that morbidity which finds in murder a magnet to attract and hold the fascinated attention. Perhaps it is but human nature; for whatever is strange or terrible holds the imagination. But however much we may dwell upon tragedy, let us be cautious in passing judgment on those who seem to have erred terribly or are fast

QUEEN THEATRE.

AN EXCELLENT
PROGRAMME.

A picture to be commended not only for the absorbing plot and elaborate setting, but also for the superb photography, is "Imperial Viols," a 1924 production now being screened at the Queen's Theatre.
The main interest centres around one "Violetta," a Spanish flower girl who, on account of her beauty and kindly thought, becomes a favourite with the Court of France during the reign of Napoleon III.
Raquel Meller, who plays the leading role, is an actress of great ability, and it is not to be surprised at that she has so rapidly won fame in America.

The music has been chosen to fit the picture and the management are to be congratulated on the efficiency of the Queen's orchestra.
In addition to the film attraction, an amusing half hour is provided by Messrs. Holt and Sawyer in songs, dances and clever impersonations.

HOME CRICKET.

THE FIRST TEST.

London, June 14.—The first Test Match between England and South Africa commenced at Edgbaston, Birmingham, to-day.
Play started in glorious weather under a cloudless sky and before 4,000 spectators. The wicket was recovering after the rain.

Taylor, the South African Captain, won the toss and sent England in to bat. The South African team included the recently discovered fast bowler Parker, who was born in South Africa but is now playing in the Bradford League.

Hobbs and Sutcliffe opened the innings, and at the lunch interval had scored 122 without being separated, Hobbs obtaining 57 and Sutcliffe 61, with four extras.

During the afternoon, the attendance had increased to 12,000.
Sutcliffe was bowled by Parker when he had made 64, including a six and six fours. Hobbs was given out l.b.w. to Blenkinsop with his score at 70, a typically excellent and chanceless innings. He hit seven fours. Woolley collected 64 before being caught by Ward off Parker, and Chapman was clean bowled by the same player for eight. At the tea interval, when the score stood at 201 for the loss of four wickets, Hendren was not out with 44 to his credit and Pender was undefeated with 24, the extras numbering 11.

LOCAL BASEBALL.

CLUB DEFEAT RECREIO
TEAM.

The meeting between the Hongkong Baseball Club and the Club de Recreio at Happy Valley on Saturday, provided an excellent exhibition of baseball, and resulted in a narrow win for the former by 8 runs to 7.
The Club de Recreio began well —or more correctly the Hongkong team did not commence very brightly and the score was 6-3 in favour of the Recreio team at the end of the fifth innings. The Baseball Club drew level in the next innings, and in the final they got ahead by two through Hogan.
O'Connor was now pitching, and his deliveries kept the Recreio men subdued. However, they managed to add a single, and the "close found the Club winners by a very narrow margin.

whilst Tate fell a victim to Parker, caught by Taylor, for 14. Kliner was not out 40 and Gilligan not out 4, with 38 extras, when play

COCOA'S FOURTH CENTENARY.

Pepys' First Cup of Tea.

The fourth centenary of the introduction of cocoa into Europe is to be celebrated this month by a conference of Empire producers either in central London or at the British Empire Exhibition. Following the conference, the British Empire Producers' Organisation hopes to arrange meetings with foreign producers, manufacturers, and dealers, and anyone interested in cacao production who will be in London in June or July is being invited to communicate with them.

Of the three popular beverages, cocoa was introduced into Europe first. There is no reference to tea in European literature before 1588, and the appreciation of coffee as a beverage dates only from the seventeenth century. How long before the discovery of America by Europeans cocoa was used in its native country it is hard to say. The soldiers of Cortez who landed in Mexico in 1519 first encountered it there, and it was introduced into Spain about 1524.

Cocoa, we know, was used in Abyssinia in the fifteenth century and it was then stated that it had been used from time immemorial. Tea, according to Chinese legend, goes back to almost 3,000 years before Christ, and if legend is a doubtful basis of history, it is at least certain that it was already a beverage as long ago as the Tang dynasty, which began in the seventh century.

To England the three beverages were introduced about the same time, the middle of the seventeenth century. London coffee-houses date from 1652. Five years later the "Public Advertiser" announced that "In Bishopsgate-street, in Queen's Head-alley, at a Frenchman's house, is an excellent West India drink, called chocolate, to be sold, where you may have it ready at any time, and also unmade at reasonable rates." Cocoa was brought from the West Indies to Bristol, and it is suggested that the large commercial interest which Quakers have in the product may perhaps be traced to this association. Bristol having for long been one of the chief centres of Quakerism.

Pepys drank his first cup of tea on September 25, 1660, but at least two years before this date it had come to London, for the "Mercurius Politicus" of September 1658, contains the advertisement: "That excellent, and by all physicians approved China drink called by Chinese Tea, by other nations Tay, alias tea, is sold at the Sultaness's Head, a coffee-house in Sweetings Run by the Royal Exchange, London."

HISTORIC WHIP.

A jockey's whip used in the famous Derby of 1844, when a great racing fraud was discovered, was sold at Sotheby's for £13. On the whip was mounted a recumbent horse with the inscription "R. L. G. won by Running Rein 1844." Running Rein was disqualified, the "winner" it was afterwards discovered, being a four-year-old horse named Macabous. The horse was ridden by R. L. Goodman whose initials the whip bears. Lord George Bontinck who made inquiries, found that large supplies of hair dye had been purchased in the West End for the purpose of disguising the horse.

A boatwoman was knocked down and injured by Mr. Kwok Chan's car at Whitfield yesterday. She was taken to hospital.

SCIENTIST IN CHINA.

Anthropological Investigations.

With a view to continuing his anthropological and ethnographical investigations upon the Chinese, Dr. B. M. Shirokogoroff, anthropologist of the Russian Academy of Sciences, left Shanghai on the 8th instant by the C.N.S. Sunning for Hongkong, says the North China Daily News.

It is his intention to stay a short while in Hongkong, there measuring as many Chinese as possible, and then to proceed to Canton, where he will be able to measure a number of Cantonese and Hakkas. By taking a large series of measurements of individuals in various social groups, it is possible to discover their affinities with other groups, and so by degrees to work out the inter-relationships of the various people that inhabit a given area.

Dr. Shirokogoroff, who is a past master in this new method of investigation—known as biometry—has carried out a considerable amount of work in East Siberia, Mongolia, Manchuria, North China, and recently at Shanghai. His work, taken in conjunction with that of others, enables us to form some idea of the distribution, past and present, of the human species in Asia. At the present time the eastern part of Asia is occupied by several distinct ethnic types. What are known as the Pal-Asiatics, who once occupied the whole of Asia, are now found in isolated groups on the fringes of the continent and, working from north to south round the East Asiatic coast, are represented by the Yakut, Chukchi, a small group of Esquimaux, Koryaks, Itelmans, Giliaks, Ainu, and probably Koreans, and the San Tak or Hakkas of Fukien.

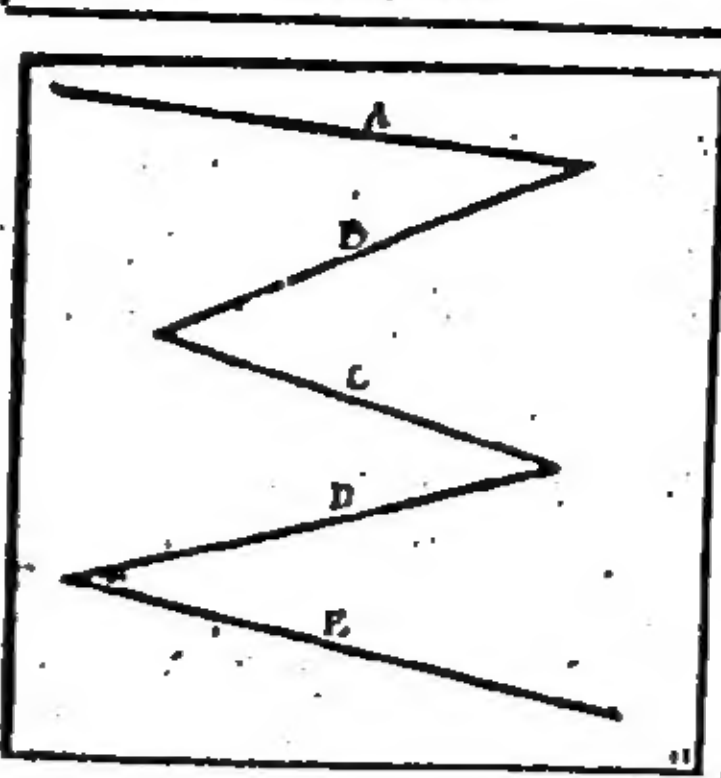

The hinterland of Eastern Siberia and Manchuria is occupied by Tungus tribes, Mongolia by the Mongols, and China by a race related to the Tibetans, but with a strong mixture of Tungus and Mongol in the north and Malay in the south. A very interesting point is that the Pal-Asiatics appear to be closely related to and to have to this day much the same culture as the Paleolithic man of Europe, the Oro-magnons. Dr. Shirokogoroff has found numerous Paleolithic sites in Eastern Siberia and Manchuria which correspond to a remarkable degree with similar sites in China and Europe.

A short while ago Mr. A. de C. Sowerby, as President of the China Society of Science and Arts, made a public appeal for funds to support Dr. Shirokogoroff's work, and so far sufficient money has been raised to enable the anthropologist to make his present trip to South China. Since the last report, the Council of the Royal Asiatic Society has donated $100 towards Dr. Shirokogoroff's work, and Mr. E. Luthy $10. More is needed, however, as it is necessary for a visit to be paid to Szechuan, and another to Shensi and Kansu before the work can be completed.

FATAL AIR FORCE ACCIDENTS. Mr. Leach, in reply to Captain Viscount Curzon in the House of Commons, stated recently that seventeen fatal accidents have taken place in the Royal Air Force since Jan. 1, 1923. Recent statistics do not support the statement that there has been a very large number of engine failures. The proportion of engine failures due to faults of maintenance is at present under investigation, but there is no reason to suppose that it is at all high. He is satisfied with the standard of technical knowledge and skill of the ground staffs and organisation generally.

—Down the Chutes.

The drawing shows the outlines of a chute, which takes five separate drops. A, B, C, D and E. Allow yourself about thirty seconds for this "teaser." In that time see if you can estimate which section carries the most "rapid" fall, and in the distance of the drop, but in the angle. In other words, which one of the chutes is the steepest? Make your estimate; then try it on your friends. Look for tomorrow's "checking," and find your "rating."

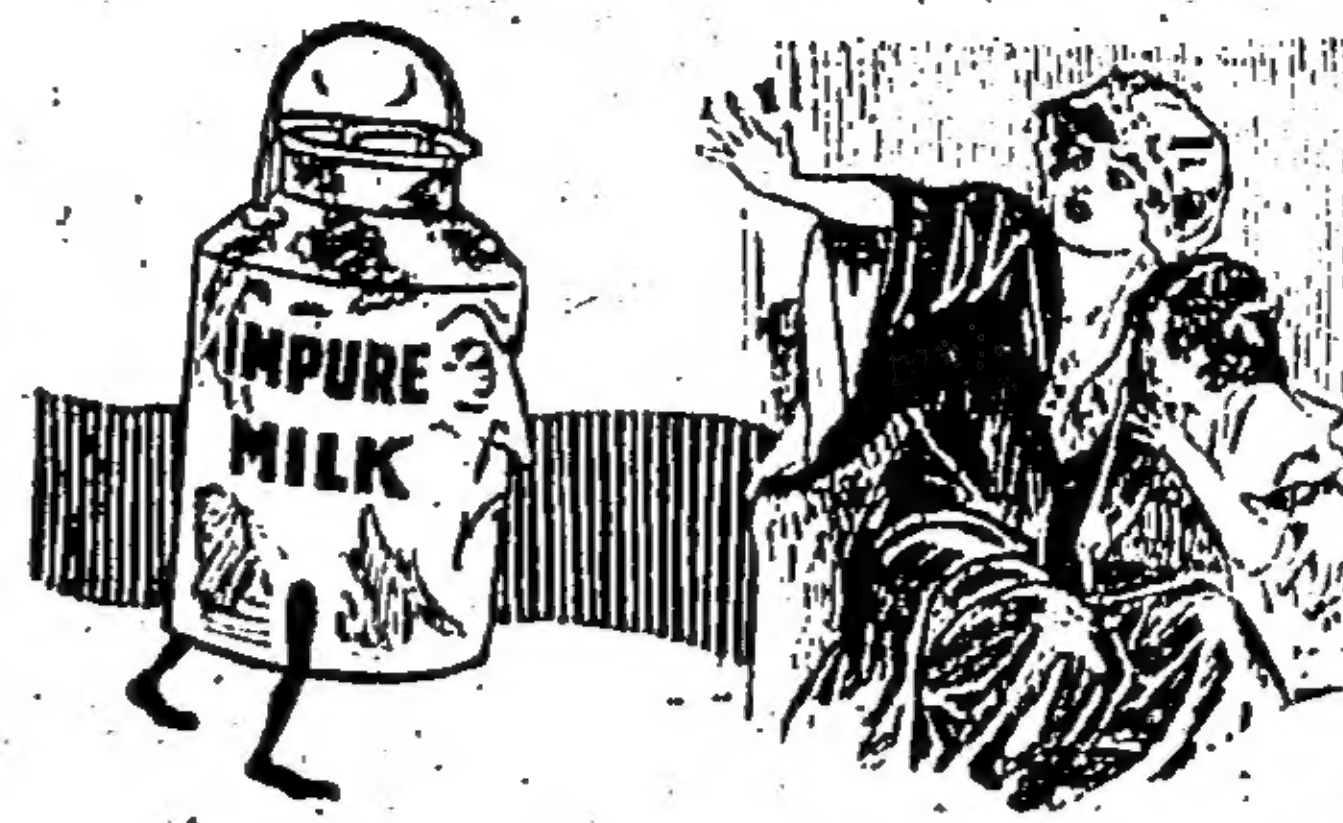

Saturday's Teasers.

A $20 gold piece is decidedly less than a half dollar. A $10 gold piece has quite a margin on a quarter dollar. A $5 gold piece and a nickel are almost the same size, with the gold piece having a tiny margin in its favor. Either estimate may be called correct. A penny is larger than an 82.50 gold piece, which is about the size of a dime. To make all four estimates correctly is exceptional; three, very good; two, good; one, average; none, poor.

SOVIET WAY WITH BEGGARS.

At Willesdon, when Joseph Levitt, a Russian, was charged with begging in London, the Aliens Officer said that Russians could not be deported, as the Soviet Government refused to have them back in the country. The Magistrate—The Soviet Government seem to have a good deal more common sense than we have been giving them credit for. They prefer that we shall keep their criminals rather than they should do so. The prisoner. I also prefer to live in England. (Laughter.) He was sentenced to one month's imprisonment, with hard labour.

Old

two senses

Peter Dawson is an old old whisky. It is matured to delightful mellowness by the only true process, that of the years and in wood. It is old, too, in the sense that its distilling and blending express the skill and experience of successive generations of Dawsons. Whenever and wherever you get "P.D." you can always be sure you are getting genuinely old whisky of the kind which is none too plentiful nowadays.
